FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: A Good Meal + A Good Deed: Noodles & Company Holds Benefit Night for Denver Options, Inc.

Denver, CO, August 6, 2007 – The national food retailer Noodles & Company supports its community by holding a benefit night for the non-profit organization Denver Options, Inc. The night will be held on Wednesday, August 8th 2007 from 5-9pm in which 20% of all proceeds from the Noodles & Company located at Iliff and Peoria go to support Denver residents with intellectual disabilities.

“Noodles & Company has always been committed to supporting the communities where we do business, and we strive to nourish and inspire,” said Bobbi Miller, General Manager at the Iliff and Peoria location. “We’re proud to support Denver Options and be an active member of the community.”

Denver Options has seen an increase in community support throughout Denver and the surrounding areas in the last two years. “We’ve had the opportunity to partner with many private organizations recently and are really seeing the mutual benefit that comes out of these relationships,” says Joan Marwitz, Director of Communications & Outreach at Denver Options, Inc.

Denver Options is a non-profit organization that provides flexible, personalized services to help people with intellectual disabilities live active and purposeful lives. The Denver Options staff finds the services and resources people need to achieve optimum health and explore lifelong learning opportunities. They focus is on individual talents and interests, helping people turn personal goals into everyday reality. They offer wide ranging services that include helping families manage the demands of caregiving, navigating funding resources and providing parent education and support.
